

7 Financial Risk Management – Policy

SpringDale Neighbourhood Centre as a not-for-profit incorporated association has a responsibility to its members, to the community and to its funding organisations to manage all finances legally, ethically and responsibility to manage the accumulated funds of the Centre

The financial risks associated with managing a Neighbourhood Centre are many and varied.

It is the responsibility of the COM to assess and minimise all financial risks relevant to the Centre, including but not limited to; accumulated funds, monthly cash flow, annual budgets, forward strategic planning.

Review services which attract GST