Following in their fathers' tootsteps

Family and friendship enduring

Drysdale has in excess of 250 children playing junior and under aged football, consisting of 12 teams, three of which are under 10's. Not really that unusual for a coastal town. However, the Drysdale Hawks under 10 side has 8 boys whose fathers all played a substantial number of senior games together for Drysdale and are still active members of the club. Some families, including the Taylor and Davis families, are even up to their third and fourth generation playing for the club.

Mike Mortimer, Hamish Goodier, Will Davis, Tom Randone and Jack Preece are all second year under 10 players, and have been joined this year by first timers Mason Davis, Quinn Taylor and Patrick Tigani. The boys enjoy playing together, as their fathers did, and not surprisingly, there is some good talent amongst them considering their breeding heritage. Even when the boys are not playing, you will often spot them down at the club practicing their shots at goals or playing 'markers up' together.

Their fathers combined have played over 1000 senior games for the club including Mario Randone who has played 200 plus games and Peter Preece who has played 300 plus games. Three of them have been bestowed Life Membership to the club, several have been committee members and are still active around the club assisting with catering, functions and sponsorship. Their talents and involvement extend even further for Dean Goodier who coaches the under 10's, Chris Taylor who coaches one of the Under 18 teams and Greg Davis who umpires the under 10 and 12 games.

It is good to see the club ethos of family and friendship enduring the passing of time and allowing generation after generation to continue to be involved with the club, and you never know, one day we might see these boys names and photos up around the club next to their fathers to celebrate their sporting achievements or community involvement.

Our hearts are safe at SpringDale

Thanks to everyone who has helped SpringDale over the last month. We were especially lucky to be supported in the purchase of a defibrillator by Drysdale Bendigo Bank. We have been working towards having this piece of life saving equipment available for our community for a long time. SpringDale is open from 9am til at least 5pm but usually 9pm most days and the defibrillator will be accessible at all times.

Drysdale Scouts helped us to "down size" a little by accepting 2 trailer loads of furniture for their garage sale. We are grateful for their support and the use of their hall for our Badminton and Volley Ball groups.

Every day is full of many interesting challenges and opportunities. Over the last month, I have discussed Child Care Policy with many levels of Government to try to get the best outcome for our community. We'll have to wait to see what results follow.

Much of our time in August will be devoted to the Economic Development Plan Project for Drysdale and Clifton Springs. We have a project team consisting of very interested community members and business people. We have downloaded more than 120 City of Greater Geelong and State Government documents which will inform our thinking. These reports and strategies will allow us to be aligned with and make best use of current strategies giving us best leverage to achieve best results for our community. We continue to improve the delivery of receive from you. We are increasing the duration of sessions for Vacation Care for the Spring Holidays, Care will commence at 8am and go through to 6pm. Hopefully this will meet the needs of more families in our community. We limit our program to 20 children and all our days have the same fee. Next holiday's program is readily available on the web or from the office. Please book early to ensure a spot.

I am lucky enough to have participated in a couple of discussions with some young people who would like to put on some events for other young people. I am excited to be working with such enthusiastic, energetic and well informed people. I think we will all be impressed with their ideas and activities.

In line with our Cultural Diversity Policy, our cultural activities continue to expand. This month we are holding a Maori Day on Sunday 14 August, a Russian evening on Friday 19 August and next month an Indian day on Tuesday 6 September. Please contact SpringDale if you would like to help with these events.

Lastly, we have started as part of our annual plan, a "Help Needed" page. We will try to liaise with people who need things and hopefully find people who can do these things. Our pilot of this is on this page. Please feel free to give us feedback about this idea and of course anything else that we do.

Wednesday 31 August will see the Annual General Meeting of the SpringDale Committee of Management, take place at 5pm in the community hall of the SpringDale Centre. We would like to invite members of the community to come along and hear how the committee has administered its role in managing the needs of the centre over the last 12 months and how it plans to continue to support the centre and local community in the future. Join us for the meeting followed by refreshment, and have a look around at this wonderful facility. Become a member of SpringDale, and also consider becoming a member of the Committee of Management, needing no specific qualifications or previous experience, only a desire to work with a passionate team of people. We are encouraging people of all age groups, abilities and interests, to join the committee. Representation of all aspects of the community is invaluable to the planning and future direction of the centre and the local community.

The committee meets once a month, currently in the evening, at the centre. Its roles include; supporting the coordinator, staff and volunteers, to undertake all the daily activities of the centre. Whilst also, upholding and administering the current Strategic Plan, the committee is looking to the future. Developing strategies to move forward include networking with local groups and organisations, communicating our ideas and seeking to pool our resources for better outcomes.

When, first becoming a member of SpringDale, 5 years ago, I was a person living in the community of the North Bellarine. Now as a member of both the centre and the Committee of Management, I am a member of the community. The difference is not subtle, yet rather dramatic. It is one thing to live somewhere, but when you join a hub like SpringDale, you have the opportunity to know so much more about your community, its resources, and the opportunities that are available for your whole family, while at the same time you can be instrumental in ensuring that the needs of the community are reflected in the activities of SpringDale, now and in the future.

If you would like to know more or want to be a part of this wonderful community organisation, then contact the centre and ask to speak with the coordinator Anne Brackley or a member of the committee about this great opportunity. Seek to be nominated or self nominate, we would love to meet you and hear your ideas.

Constitution Amendment at SpringDale

" A motion was passed at the July SpringDale Committee of Management meeting, that the Constitution be amended by replacing Clause 14 with clauses 20 - 23 of the Model Rules. The change, if approved, will mean that the Executive of the Committee of Management will be elected by the members of SpringDale Neighbourhood Centre at the Annual General Meeting.

The current Clause 14 states that the Executive is appointed at the Committee of Management meeting next following the AGM."

A Special Meeting has been called for Friday, 5 August at 5pm to deal with this motion. All members are welcome to attend and notification has been sent to all members.

Years Ago

As reported in The Argus Wednesday 19 December, 1928.

Holiday Resorts Clifton Springs

Clifton Springs, with its pleasant climate, splendid bathing beach and mineral springs is one of the favourite watering places on the Bellarine Peninsula. Children delight in its store of shells and sandy beach, where shoals of small fish swim close to the water's edge, inviting capture with bucket and spade. There is golf and tennis at the Springs and cricket and tennis at Drysdale. Good baskets of whiting have been caught off the jetty in the season.

STILL CELEBRATING

The celebrations are continuing in our 10 Out of 10 Season with a CD launch for Jenny Thomas, the return of Rachel Berger with the 'Clever Dicks' stand up comedy show and a special performance from those funky people from Cosmo Cosmolino, and that's just the first weekend of August! Morning Showtime brings back the fabulous Soul Sister Swing, who always get the audience dancing in the aisles and the very popular Concert for the Clans is also returning. A number of Bellarine Secondary students will be presenting this years school production of 'Bats' the musical. We are also delighted that the Melbourne Writers Festival is coming to the Potato Shed and a number of local schools will get the opportunity to participate in this fantastic opportunity. September is going to be another busy month so look out for Deborah Conway who is making her way to the Shed early September with Half Man Half Woman. So much to see, make sure you get your tickets now. For further information on any of our upcoming events or to book tickets call the Potato Shed on (03) 5251 1998. A teaspoon or 2 of vinegar can help keep eggs from cracking while boiling.

Add 1/4 teaspoon soda to Cranberries while cooking them and they will not require as much sugar.

Add about 7 drops of lemon juice to 2 cups of whipping cream. It will make the cream beat up firm in about half the time.

contents, especially when you place a handbag down and deal with purchases or other matters.

When using restrooms or change rooms, do not place your handbag close to the door or side walls particularly if there is a gap between the walls and the ground. It could be snatched from the outside. In restaurants, put your bag on your lap or on the floor between your feet with your foot on the strap. Alternatively, place the strap through one leg of the chair. And never leave your bag on adjacent seats in theatres, halls or on public transport - the distraction could result in handbag theft.

Basket have invited us to cultivate an under-used part of their backyard, so we have an extra 300m2 of land to play with. We've formalised the agreement under a Landshare contract www.landshareaustralia.com.au. Allowing room for compost bays, a worm farm, a shed, paths and a wattle windbreak on the northern boundary, there's 120m2 of growing space. Cultivating that much virgin land will be hard work, as for the last 20 years it has been grass and blanket weed. So I've come up with a few ideas to lighten the load. Grow mulch where you need it 40m2 of growing space will be used for comfrey and lucerne. These tough perennials have deep roots that mine the subsoil for nutrients, returning all those lost goodies to the surface where crops can use them. They'll provide mulch and plant food right where it's needed.

Sheet mulch instead of digging

One 20m2 bed will be sheet mulched with several layers of newspaper right on top of the weeds and grass, then a thick layer of straw and sheep poo will go on top of that. In late August we'll plant potatoes into the straw.

A new vegie garden this big is hard yakka - but less so if you work smart.

Bye bye weeds!

Use cover crops to shade out the weeds

Three more beds will be rough-dug with a mattock and fork. (There has to be some hard yakka - I need to lose that belly!) We'll sow a cover crop of oats and vetch into those beds. After three months that will be slashed and dug in to feed the soil.

Then the beds will be mulched with straw and compost, before maize and pumpkin seedlings are planted.

The comfrey bed is freshly dug and ready to go, but it will be months before the new plants are established. How can we stop the blanket weed and grass from taking over? Simple: cover the whole bed with BioGarden® biodegradable film.

This organic mulch film breaks down after three months, giving the comfrey a head start.

Garden Club donations

At the AGM of the Clifton Springs and Drysdale Garden Club it was decided by members to use some of our surplus funds for charitable purposes. Some of our members had contact with the Charlton Garden Club where many Charlton gardens were destroyed in the recent floods. It was decided to send $500 to the Charlton Garden Club to help their members buy seeds and plants to enable them to reconstruct their gardens.

A further donation of $500 was made to the Children's Ward of Geelong Hospital via Barwon Health. This would be used to purchase diabetic education packs to be used in schools. It was emphasised that the Clifton Springs and Drysdale area be prioritised to receive these packs. Fiona Scott from Barwon Health will be attending our August meeting to explain the packs to our members.

Next meeting. Monday 15 August at 7.30pm. at the Uniting Church Hall in High Street, Drysdale. Entrance from car park at rear.

Exceeding Customer Expectations

How often do you walk away from a business with a smile on your face and a feeling that you have been treated like a VIP? Not that often? How often do you walk away feeling like you were an unwanted interruption to their day, and that "customer service" was definitely not a high priority to the staff or their management?

Hmm, more often than not?

From a customer point of view it's fairly easy to gauge whether you've experienced exceptional, or even reasonable, customer service. From a business point of view it's not so easy. It might be a good idea to make an honest appraisal of your systems and processes, and ask the questions, "Do they really work?", "Could we do it better?"

We all know that exceptional customer service soon has customers sharing their experiences with others, just as a bad experience does the same. It takes constant attention and vigilance, but by involving your staff in the process and investing some time in training if needed, you may find it a rewarding experience for you and your staff as well as your customers.

Annette Campbell from Bellarine Gift Haven will be our guest speaker on this important topic at the SpringDale Business Network Breakfast on Monday August 22 at 7am.

Ian Ash (Orgment Business Solutions P/L) will also give his Top 6 Tips for delivering Excellence in Customer Service.

We will look forward to seeing you there.

Combined Probus Club of Clifton Springs/Drysdale

Probus - Kelly Gang, Iron Curtain and getting a visa for Africa.

We had three Club member speakers at our June meeting, giving interesting and enjoyable accounts of incidents from their life experiences covering early life at Mansfield and the Kelly Gang, working behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany and an interesting travel experience obtaining a visa for Africa. Afterwards we lunched at the Leopold Sportsmans Club, where we enjoyed the food and company, as per the photo.

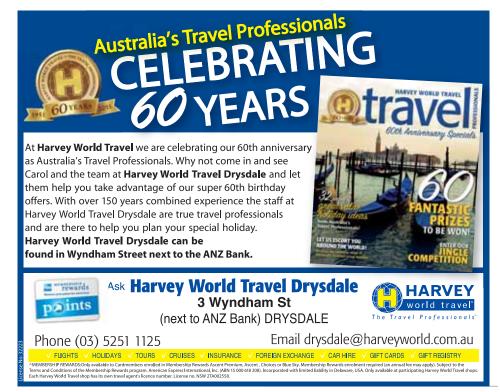

At our meeting this month on 8 August, we will have a Show-and-Tell of the hobby work of our Crafty Ladies and Clever Gents. This annual event is always a winner.

Our meetings are held in the Members' Room of the Clifton Springs Golf Club from 10am on the second Monday of each month. We are a combined Club for women and men, and visitors and prospective members, singles and couples, are welcomed at all our meetings and activities.

Please contact Dorothy on (03) 5251 3702 for further information.

Drysdale Primary School

Chess moves and strategies

Ten enthusiastic members of the Drysdale Primary school chess club competed in their first tournament at Geelong East Primary. The children from grades 2 to 6 had a marvellous day trying out their chess moves and strategies against children from other Geelong Schools. The school runs a chess club in the library every Friday and the children have developed their chess playing skills under the guidance and with specialist direction from local chess master Geoff Webster. Geoff was keen to observe his protégés doing very well with standout performances from Madeline Searle grade 6, her brother Ben in grade 4 and Liam Kadenbach also in grade 4.

Geoff is a member of Drysdale Portarlington Lions and is looking at ways his club can support the development of chess in schools on the Bellarine. Teacher Matthew Green said that the tournament was a way of giving the children a chance to pit their skills against other children of similar ability. The children have enjoyed to challenge and it's great to see them so focussed and developing their ability to concentrate, he said after the tournament. Earlier tournaments run by Claire Wilson the previous principal were help within the school, so the children were excited about this contest. The children were keen to have a tournament each term.

GIRL GUIDES

Drysdale Guides recently camped together in Ocean Grove this their second annual camp, which was an incredible success for our Drysdale Guiding family. We had approximately 30 girls and leaders at the camp during the weekend.

Our theme was The Mad Hatter's Tea Party and all our activities were based on this theme, including painting the roses red, playing croquet with hedgehogs and the many times through the weekend that cups were used. Thank you to everyone who made this camp a success our leaders, our girls and our families who support us.

Thanks to Youth Foundation for granting $1750 and The Rotary Club of Drysdale for donating $500 to help us with our event Anivention – a cartooning, sci-fi animation event that we are organizing for later in the year. Drysdale Guides look forward to sharing this event with the wider community.

Please contact us on

St James' Church Hall - Fundraising not Trivial at all

Despite St James' Church Hall being surrounded by builder's fencing, there's plenty of action. Of course, there's action on the inside as all the Hall fittings have been removed pending re-modelling and the floorboards have been lifted prior to restumping (plus about 50cubic metres of lovely soil which appeared to be propping up the floor.) On the outside, fundraising continues with much vigour. The new Shed extension at the rear of the Hall now houses

Bellarine Woodworkers

Have a new workshop

After a protracted development period and the overcoming of many obstacles, the club has now completed the erection of a workshop, including a complete upgrading of the railway area power supply, at the Drysdale railway precinct. This will allow the club to expand its activities and facilities for the development of members' skills and to produce articles for sale and community purposes.

As well as providing fellowship amongst wood enthusiasts, there is provision for the training of interested men and women in the various woodwork categories by experienced craftsmen.

The club at present has special interest groups covering wood turning, intarsia and scroll sawing, box making (jewel boxes, storage, etc.), model boat building involving detailed scale models of craft past and present, toy making (especially for the disabled and disadvantaged) and carpentry and furniture making. Until now, these groups have met in members' workshops where the necessary machines were available, not always the best method as availability is sometimes a problem. The provision of a fully equipped shop, readily available, will assist output and training.

At the present time, cupboards and benches are being constructed so that groups can attend at their allotted times, and machines already owned and others

Freemasons charitable donation benefits Drysdale CFA

Each year the Freemasons Public Charitable Foundation issues grants to community organisations to assist them in their activities. Since its inception $2.1 million has been distributed in the form of grants to various organisations in the areas of child care, aged care, health and community and will continue to do so as part of Freemasons Victoria's aim to assist the community wherever a need is identified. This year a total of $32,000 has been provided to organisations operating in Geelong and the Bellarine Peninsula. Alan Lindsay representing the Charitable Foundation recently had the pleasure of presenting a cheque for $6000 to Drysdale CFA to enable the brigade to purchase and install audio/video equipment to assist in the training of its members.

Drysdale Health hosts Annette Playsted's Art exhibition Water Stories

Artist and SpringDale Art Tutor, Annette Playsted currently has her most recent collection of drawings and paintings called Water Stories, on exhibition in the reception rooms of the Drysdale Health Group at 27 High Street, Drysdale. The opening of Water Stories on June 17 was a happy occasion where art lovers and colleagues of the Drysdale Health Group mingled with Annette's artist friends from her SpringDale activities and her choral pursuits in Drysdale. As host of the occasion, Peter Terry welcomed about fifty people to the opening, while wellknown author and artist, Nan Bodsworth opened the show. Nan paid tribute to the quality of the artworks on display but also to Annette's work for the arts within our community. The collection of pastel drawings, watercolours, and acrylic paintings are currently on show and for sale until mid September. Most are landscapes completed within the past 12 months, all feature water and were inspired by visits to Merimbula, Hastings and Bells Beach. There are also local scenes of the Drysdale Lakes and Corio Bay.

The exhibition is open to the public during business hours Monday to Friday until 30 September, 2011.

Arm Chair Travel

A number of years ago we started a group called Arm Chair Travel, unfortunately it only lasted for a few sessions. Since then we have held many successful international evenings that have revolved around food.

Thanks to Jackie we held a very successful Italian evening and thanks to Nicole we showed shots of Italy that enabled people who had also been to these places to remember and relive the experiences and those who hadn't been there to visit for the first time.

I have been encouraged to see if there is any interest in this idea again.

Please register your interest in being part of this group. Phone (03) 5253 1960 or email office@springdale.org.au

The Book Club - Skippy Dies - Paul Murray

What a strange book!

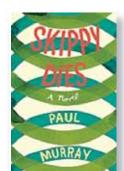

I found it hard to read as most of the time it was difficult to know what was happening.

Was Skippy suffering a form of autism? Was he being abused by one of the priests?

What did his death have to do with anything? Was all the weirdness just a result of all the pills?

After finishing the book, I was still not too sure what it had all been about.

That said however, the writer has a keen insight into the lives of boys in their early teens - obviously from having been one himself.

There is a large cast of players in this story and very little description of their physical appearance so in my mind they all became one amorphous mass of boys - maybe this was the writer's intention. Even the main characters were muddled in my mind.

Did Skippy really die as this doughnut eating race happens in November (after Halloween)?

Was the point of the story that he experienced that kiss and died before he could find out what a tart his "angel" was?

I have no idea!

It was quite well written but definitely not a book that I would have selected for myself.

About the Author

Paul Murray

(born 1975)
Is an Irish novelist.
He studied English literature at Trinity College, Dublin, and subsequently completed his Masters in creative writing at the University of East

Anglia. Murray has written two novels: his first, An Evening of Long Goodbyes, was shortlisted for the Whitbread Prize in 2003 and nominated for the Kerry Irish Fiction Award. His second novel Skippy Dies was longlisted for the 2010 Booker Prize and the 2010 Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Award for comic fiction and shortlisted for the National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction. It was also #3 on TIME Magazine's top ten works of fiction from 2010.

Over the past few weeks Kel has been telling me of times he spent with Adrian Mannix. Adrian Mannix was a larger than life character in the Drysdale and district community tapestry.

Adrian attended Drysdale Primary

School and then went onto Geelong High. Kel remembers Adrian taking off his artificial legs and running on the sand, which must have been incredibly hard to do.

Adrian would travel with Kel on the transport to Finlay or Thorpdale. Adrian became the purchasing officer for Cheetham Salt Works, and he worked in an office in Little Malop Street.

Kel introduced Adrian to the Portarlington / Drysdale Lions Club and helped him to be elected as President and then District Governor.

Indented Heads Community Hall

Diverse and a grand view

"I had no idea it was here..." That's what people say about the Indented Head Community Hall; when they find it. Tucked behind Moonah trees it is pretty easy to drive past. "It's an amazing space with a great view!" That's what people say when they step inside this large old-style hall built above boat storage sheds, only metres from the water, with large windows looking over the Bay. Built by campers and locals in the 1950's the hall was used for New Years Eve parties, weddings, film showings and dances. You can use the Hall for family functions, corporate events or for community activities today. The rates are very reasonable because Bellarine Bayside are keen to see the Indented Head Community Hall used by the community.

our reader's feedback

Fresh Fish

Drysdale is so lucky to have a new Fresh Fish outlet. My flathead fillets were delicious and will be buying some more next week. Murradoc Road will certainly advance once the proposed Aldi store is established.

Jack, Drysdale.

Editor: I was at the launch of White Fisheries in Drysdale. It was a great night and we enjoyed beautiful fresh seafood. Drysdale is lucky to have this new enterprise and 12 more jobs in our community.

Soup

During the cold winter months I really enjoy a bowl of piping, hot soup. I cooked the recipes in the Messenger last month and my family thought them scrumptious.

Claire, Clifton Springs.

Editor: All our recipies are recommended by our members – I love soup too.

Golf Improvement

Passing the Clifton Springs Golf Course on Bayshore Avenue recently, I was amazed to see the improvement. This is a great asset for our community and the family of ducks who enjoy the new lakes.

Tom, Drysdale.

Editor: The Drysdale / Clifton Springs area is becoming the centre of development on the Peninsula and everyone is noticing.

Congratulations Anne

On behalf of myself and the German language group, I wish to congratulate Anne Brackley for winning the Adrian Mannix Award for 2011. Anne is a tireless worker throughout the community and she is more than worthy of this award.

Roy Pitchford, St Leonards.

Editor: Thanks Roy, it is great to have an occasion to celebrate service to our community.

Messenger

I am loving the all colour format of the Messenger and think it is going along very nicely and reflects a wide demograhic of the community.

Debbie, Drysdale.

Editor: Its hard to believe how quickly the format has changed over the last year. It is a pleasure to pick up and read.

Economic Development Plan Project

This is such an exciting project and its catching. We have a team of enthusiastic business and community members who have jumped quickly on board. At our first Project Team meeting we began to formulate the methodology that we use, to do our very best, to contact every business and every community member in Drysdale Clifton Springs. This will ensure that everyone has had a chance to participate in this process.

I would like to volunteer to speak at your meeting where ever it is held and whenever it is held. This is a way to get to many people quickly. Please ring to book a 20 – 30 minute presentation as soon as possible. We would love to receive copies of your group's / businesses Strategic Plan – your goals your hopes for your group / businesses.

In some ways we started to do this last year when we ran some grant writing workshops. The time we spent allowed groups to know what other groups were doing and allowed us to be able to support applications for grants, many of which were very successful.

We are very good at supporting each other groups supporting groups, businesses supporting groups, businesses supporting businesses, this process will give us the opportunity to better understand about each other and to be able to support each other more.

There is a page being dedicated to this project on the SpringDale Website – please email coordinator@springdale.org.au in the Subject line please place "Economic Development Plan Project" to go on an email list until for updates until twitter.

facebook and other methods of communication are set up.

Please email details of businesses that would like to be invited to any meetings / events or to be interviewed. Please pass on details of groups that we may no know about – the other day I met a man from the Bellarine Model Aircraft Club – he wanted to use a room at SpringDale – that was the first I knew them. What happens here that we don't know about? I'm so excited to be part of us defining our own destiny. Please join in and be part of it. Phone 52531960 or email coordinator@springdale.org.au.

Are you under 18 and looking for something to do on Friday nights? Are you sick of paying top dollar for mediocre events? Do you want to have a good time, while helping those who aren't able to? If you said yes to any of the above, then we have the answer for you! Introducing Flicks for a Cause, an organisation dedicated to providing entertainment for youth of the Bellarine Peninsula, while helping those who are less fortunate. We are run by youth, for youth, and want to provide a movie experience that is both cheap and central to young people in the Bellarine Peninsula. We will be based at the SpringDale Neighbourhood Centre, and proceeds will head to charities, so watch this space for more news from Flicks for a Cause.
