North Bellarine Business & Services Directory

Good Day

Thank you for taking the time to read the 2022-23 On the Bellarine Business and Services Directory. This is our 15th edition of the Directory - helping us to connect people with businesses and services. Who would have thought, when we went to print last time, what was about to un-fold and how clever we were putting the extra year on the cover. When you have a good idea you should stick with it and we have.

This edition has been curated by a new team - Glen and Angelo. Glen joined the SpringDale Team late in 2021 and this has been his first project with us. Thanks gentlemen for your time and energy that you have devoted to this community publication. We thank all our advertisers for helping us to provide this resource for our community. We are so pleased almost all our advertisers remained with us and we have a number of new businesses listed.

We love to be able to support and promote local businesses and services, especially those that help people to settle into our beautiful part of the world and become part of our community.

As always, very happy to have any feedback about this document or about the many services that SpringDale provides to our community - please email directory@springdale.org.au or phone 5253 1960.

Hoping that you find this a useful resource and if you are a business owner or service provider, that you might consider being part of the next directory or allowing us to help you become part of the online version as soon as possible.

Yours very sincerely

Anne Brackley OAM
